Home Sweet Home

► Location Roke, Wallingford, OX10 6JD
t: 0844 683 5572 w: www.hshroke.com e: info@hshroke.com

For the locals, this charming, traditional inn is a much-loved home from home. It's a welcoming destination where families can get together for a meal, or where friends can convene for a leisurely pint. All the best things in life – scrumptious food, regional ales and lively people – can be found here.

The food is fresh and locally sourced, from the prime cuts of meat to fish caught in Cornwall; Pieminister pies are available too. The pub also has its very own garden where natural produce is grown. My chunky sea bass fillet, set on samphire with new potatoes, was perfectly cooked – it went down well with a zesty glass of San Antonio pinot grigio. Home Sweet Home is also a fantastic venue for weddings and functions. Visit once and you won't ever want to leave.

Open: Mon-Sat noon-3pm, 6pm-late; Sun noon-9pm

The Chequers Inn

► Location Main Street, Charney Basset, Nr. Wantage, OX12 0EX
t: 0844 683 5573 w: www.chequerscharney.co.uk e: info@chequerscharney.co.uk

Overlooking the green in the picture-postcard village of Charney Basset, this traditional pub offers a warm atmosphere and delicious food in a setting full of character. The generous portions of hearty pub fare come at very reasonable prices, making The Chequers Inn a perfect place to take the whole family.

The menu is full to bursting with classic favourites and speciality dishes, all made from locally sourced produce where possible. Enjoy homely Sunday roasts, 'drunken duck' in a whisky and gooseberry sauce, or pie of the day; alternatively, stop by for a tasty sandwich or ploughman's lunch before heading off to explore the nearby market towns of Faringdon, Abingdon or Wantage. And with three comfortable and spacious bedrooms also available, you can even treat yourself to an extra-special weekend in this scenic inn.

Open: Mon-Sat noon-2.30pm, 5.30pm-11pm; Sun noon-10pm
